Trinity House – Monday 26th March and Monday 28th May 2012

Visits to Trinity House, Tower Hill have been arranged for Monday 26th March and Monday 28th May 2012. Trinity House is The General Lighthouse Authority for England, Wales and the Channel Islands as well as the name of the historical headquarters in London.

Our guided tour of the 18th century listed building will introduce us to the history and treasures of lighthouses and maritime safety. The tour will last for approximately one and a quarter hours and be followed by tea and biscuits.

We have booked the same tour on alternative dates for a maximum of 25 people each time.

The tour on Monday 26th March at 14.30 (2.30pm) will meet at 2.15pm at the main entrance. On arrival please “book in” with the Organiser, Carol Courtney (mobile phone 07790362523).

The tour on Monday 28th May at 15.00 (3pm) will meet at 2.45pm at the main entrance. On arrival please “book in” with the Organiser, Joan Price (mobile phone 07711689075).

The subsidised cost of either outing is £5 per person including tea and biscuits. There are also a number of places to eat and drink around Tower Hill.

Trinity House overlooks the Tower of London. The nearest tube is Tower Hill. The address is: Trinity House, Tower Hill, London EC3N 4DH. The website is www.trinityhouse.co.uk We have provisionally reserved 25 places for each date and need to confirm booking a month before the event so it is necessary that we receive your confirmation and cheques as soon as possible.

We look forward to seeing you there.

Please complete and return the slip below, together with your cheque made payable to Aviva Fellowship to Carol at the above address by 13th February 2012.
