CINEMA MUSEUM
2 Dugard Way (off Renfrew Road), London SE11 4TH
Wednesday 30 July 2025

Dear Croydon Fellowship Member,

London's Cinema Museum is devoted to keeping alive the spirit of cinema from the days before the multiplex. Set in historic surroundings in Kennington, close to the Elephant & Castle, The Cinema Museum houses a unique collection of artefacts, memorabilia and equipment that preserves the history and grandeur of cinema from the 1890s to the present day.

The Museum is not open all day every day. As they are unfunded and run entirely by volunteers, the Museum can only be visited by guided tour or by attending a screening.

'The Cinema Museum is culturally very important to the history of movies and gives insight into how things have changed. It was the workhouse where Charlie Chaplin went as a child. It is a monument of great importance to anyone interested in Cinema.'* – Sylvia Syms

Our tour will last about 2 hours including a short film show and complimentary tea/coffee and biscuits.

Please note there are ordinary stairs to negotiate to access the auditorium, no lifts are available.
